RE-DEDICATION OF ENGLAND TO OUR LADY - England is to be re-dedicated to Our Lady, just as it was under King Richard II in 1381. The re-dedication will take place across the country on Sunday, 29th March, and is fulfilled by a communal act of prayer through reciting two specially written prayers, 'The Angelus Promise' and 'The Act of Entrustment'. Mass will be celebrated at the Catholic National Shrine and Basilica of Our Lady of Walsingham followed by a procession with the statue of Our Lady of Walsingham to the site of the original Holy House in the Priory grounds, where the re-dedication will take place. A 'Dowry Tour' has been visiting all of England's Catholic Cathedrals since last February; the final visit will be to Westminster Cathedral from 19th - 22nd March. A dowry painting has been produced which will begin a journey to every parish in England after the re-dedication. For more information please see this month's copy of 'The Pilgrim' (article is also on the noticeboard) or visit www.behold2020.com. To personally prepare for the re-dedication we are being asked to pray The Angelus daily.
